Yesterday's clearings were $191,388, as compared with $221,081 for the corresponding day of last year.

County Treasurer Lynch yesterday for-warded to State Treasurer Chipman a check for $50,000 on account of this year's tax collections.

A meeting of the board of education will be held this morning at which officers pertaining to the on-coming election will be discussed. No changes have been made as to politing places or judges, but it is considered probable that an additional judge will be appointed for the First municipal ward.

Thomas Thomas, the bey that was accidentally shot on Sunday, is still in a precarrous condition. He is at his home and is doing as well as could be expected. When asked about his condition, Dr. Dalby, who is attending him, replied: "He has a chance for he life. That is about all I can say at present."

All voters at the school election should, when they go to the polls, announce to the judges the district in which they reside. The voters of each ward are grouped under the various initial letters, and are subdivided according to districts so that the information suggested wall greatly facilitate matters.

Mayor Glendining vesterday approved by ordinance readjusting the salaries of be firmen. Several of the laddles were regimning to think that a veto would make out the ordinance, but developments proved that their fears were roundless. The vigitant fire fighers will mave no cause now to quit their positions for more incrutive employment eisewhere.

The board of trustees of the city II-brary and free reading room yesterday afternoon effected a permanent organization, drew lots for the one, two and three-year terms, and took preliminary action toward making the library a fixed public institution at the earliest practicable date.

When the question of effecting a permanent organization was broached Mrs. D. B. Hempstead moved that the temporary officers, chosen at the preliminary neeting last Monday, be the permanent officers of the board. This motion prevailed, and Mr. T. G. Washington, Nov. 25—Charles Frohmat's production of Joseph Arthur's new play. The Salt of the Earth, was presented at the Columbia theatre tonight. The play was especially well received and gives promise of achieving as great success as the author's "Elue Jeans" and other plays.

The play is a country comedy of Hoosier life, dealing with the fortunes of a bright young farmer. Tom May, who riess from the plow to political distinction, and his sweetheart, Anna May. The author was called before the curtain at the end of the third act.

Annie Russell, in the leading role, was given an enthusiastic reception.
